

eROCKIT
MADE IN BERLIN

Works like a bicycle with the power of a motorcycle. 100 % electric fun.

EMOTION WITHOUT EMISSION

THE FIRST HUMAN-HYBRID

People walking well known paths don't leave any traces. With the eROCKIT, you are ahead of time and you are setting the pace! eROCKIT is a brand new concept of urban mobility. It is a new breed. It combines high performance technology with the human-ergonomic concept of bicycle riding.

The eROCKIT is operated like a bicycle, but has the performance of a motorcycle. The new technology of the eROCKIT allows a multiplication of muscular power realized through its electrical motor. You can not only keep up with the city traffic but speed up faster than most other vehicles. Relaxation and exercise included. You are your own propulsion!
